

Senior Financial Controller (100%)

Our sensor solutions and software applications for resource-efficient products, coupled with a commitment to enhancing the quality of life, have positioned us as a leading international high-tech company, ensuring steady year-on-year growth. Our corporate culture is defined by knowledge exchange, engaging development projects, an innovative spirit, and outstanding technological excellence. Join us and become an integral part of our global team as a Senior Financial Controller.

Location

Sensirion Automotive Solutions Korea Co., Ltd. Guro, Seoul, Korea.

Your responsibilities

Managing accounting

- Prepare, analyze, and discuss local gross margins with business partners.
- Review and analyze cost centers and address action items with local management.
- Manage cost challenge process and ensure key performance indicators.
- Develop local inventory procedures and risk management.
- Participate in the budgeting process with HQ.

Budgeting and business planning

- Set targets, communicate assumptions, and coordinate the budget with the local management.
- Lead the planning process and provide appropriate financial support to the business to enable effective planning.
- Apply various budgeting and forecasting methods and innovate the critical inputs to the business planning.

Overview of transactional accounting

- Review and report the balance sheet variances and P&L to the designated General Manager and business partner, exercising professional skepticism in preparing journal entries and analyzing transactions.
- Provide overall support and design of local business processes and policy enforcement.
- Lead financial statement audits, tax, and regulatory compliance.
- Review contracts for appropriate financial recognition.
- Perform other duties or ad hoc projects within the scope of responsibilities.

Taxation

- Ensure compliance of the tax estimate with updated tax regulations.
- Preparation of VAT and tax returns.
- Review of local tax, property tax, corporate income tax, etc.
- Ensure tax compliance for local businesses.

Other

- Complete cross-functional projects as required.
- Lead risk management in the financial aspect.
- Provide professional advice and assistance to support the company's business in accounting, finance, and tax, including credit control.
- Daily and monthly communication channel between HQ to resolve any disputes and reconcile items.

Your Profile

- Bachelor's degree with an emphasis in controlling, accounting or business administration with additional hours in accounting and controlling or a CPA certification.
- Minimum of five years of work experience in controlling, including working as an integral part of the monthly closing procedure, preferably in a manufacturing environment
- Understanding and application of the advanced costing techniques in a manufacturing environment.
- Knowledge of core accounting principles, as well as problem identification and resolution skills.
- Capable of driving local planning processes with local management for effective planning.
- Ability to lead the local transactional accounting department, encouraging and challenging the team.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills in English.
- Strong organizational skills as well to build and maintain relationships across the organization.

Are you innovative and committed to delivering first-rate performance? Do you want to work in a company run by people who value fairness and team spirit? If that sounds like you, we would be delighted to have you on board.

Our recruiting team (kr-sel-recruiting@sensirion.com) or Korea HR Lead (inyoung.jun@sensirion.com) look forward to receiving your application documents (resume, employer references, degrees including grades).

Direct applications are preferred.